

Anti-Slavery Policy

The Mews | 6 Putney Common | London | SW15 1HL | United Kingdom
+44 (0)20 8246 4050 | enquiries.global@aptlimited.co.uk

This document is the property of APT Transtelex Ltd. The contents may not be copied in whole or part or be disclosed to any person outside the Company without the prior consent of a director.

APT is a Quality Assured Firm, ISO Certificate Number 10039.

| Version: | V 1. 0 | | |
|-------------|-------------------|------------------------|---------------|
| Originator: | Andrew Clementson | Director of Operations | November 2018 |
| Approved: | Charles Jamieson | Managing Director | November 2018 |

ANTI SLAVERY POLICY

APT Transtelex Ltd endeavours to adhere to its values in all of its activities and strives to be a good example of good practice. APT encourages its employees, contractors and suppliers to adopt socially responsible policies and practices.

APT has a zero – tolerance approach to slavery. APT acts ethically in all its business dealings and expects the same high standards from its supply chain, including contractors, suppliers and business partners.

APT is committed to ensuring there is transparency in its business and in its approach to tackling slavery in accordance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

The management is responsible for ensuring the policy is applied to all people working for the company in whatever capacity.

If there is thought to be a breach of the policy, then management must be advised and decisive action taken immediately. In the event the breach relates to one of the company's suppliers or contractors this may cause the termination of the relationship.

We aim to encourage openness and will support anyone who raises genuine concerns in good faith under this policy, even if they turn out to be mistaken.