TRANSLATION SERVICES

Translation

All translations are completed by qualified, industry-specific, native linguists who have been approved via the APT Linguistic Certification Programme.

This incorporates subject-specific testing, which is ongoing each year for every linguist.

Each translator must have a minimum of 3 years' experience translating in their field of speciality.

Localisation

We adapt products and services to the linguistic and cultural requirements of specific regions of the world.

Multilingual Voiceover

Our voiceover team provides top-quality multilingual voiceover for training and eLearning assignments.

Document Formatting and Publishing

The publishing team provides all DTP and formatting support for materials requiring the service, including eLearning, manuals, brochures, presentations and websites.

Interpreting

Our interpreters have been rigorously tested in order to guarantee that they meet our ISO standards, ensuring that your event will be a success.

Technical Support

Each project is assigned to a project manager.

From pre-translation and file assessment, to file integration and linguistic QA, our team is on hand to provide the necessary support and ensure delivery to your deadlines.

TRANSLATION TECHNOLOGY

We use translation memory tools for all editable text materials we receive from you.

These tools automatically create translation memories which are available for subsequent reuse for all future work you may have.

This enables us to provide discounts where there is repetition, and consistency where there is approved terminology.

IT & SECURITY

Our IT infrastructure and its security are critical to our business, and reliable data access is a priority.

We provide a secure file-sharing service for those clients who require it.

This enables rapid and secure transfer of artwork files.

With our diverse range of clients in the defence, financial and legal sectors, among others, one of our main priorities is to continually assess our data security to protect your confidentiality.

APT's COMMITMENT

APT Ltd is happy to provide you with tailored pricing for all projects you would like translated, with, of course, no obligation to you. Our clients confirm that we consistently provide competitively priced, high-quality translations. Why not take the opportunity to benchmark us against your current supplier?

We are confident in our abilities, and client references can be provided on request.

Because we respect our existing clients' confidentiality, we always obtain their approval before disclosing their names.
